Hanlon Defeats Elliott by a Dozen Lengths in the Great Boat Race.

The Contest Witnessed By Over Eighty Thousand Persons.

The Struggle For Two Miles the Most Exciting Ever Seen.

FIRST DISPATCH.
Newcastle-on-Tyne, June 16.—Hanlon won as he liked. Immense enthusiasm.

SECOND DISPATCH.
Toronto, June 16.—A second dispatch from Newcastle-on-Tyne says Hanlon won by ten lengths.

THIRD DISPATCH.
New York, June 16.—A special dispatch from London says over eighty thousand persons witnessed the boat race between Hanlon and Elliott, and the greatest excitement prevailed. Hanlon was the favorite at 100 to 30. The struggle for two miles was the most exciting ever witnessed.

FOURTH DISPATCH.
London, June 16.—2 p. m.—Hanlon won the race with great ease by nearly a dozen lengths.

FIFTH DISPATCH.
New York, June 16.—The news of Hanlon's victory over Elliott, spread rapidly, and elicited considerable comment here, though the result was expected. There was comparatively little betting on the result in New York.

SIXTH DISPATCH.
New York, June 16.—Another dispatch from Newcastle-on-Tyne says of the Hanlon-Elliott race:

The course the men rowed over was three miles and 760 yards—a full champion course. Thousands of people poured into New Castle from the surrounding districts. There were many representatives of border land from Airwick and surrounding towns who expected that their representative would be worsted in the contest with the young Canadian. The day was somewhat cold and cloudy and a somewhat cold wind was blowing from the northeast.

At fifteen minutes after 11 the referee's boat had taken up its position at the starting point, at Highlevel bridge. The weather still remained dull and cloudy, while the wind, which was from the eastward, was blowing up stream.

Men were offering two to one on Hanlon when Armstrong, the referee, arrived. Soon after the steam yacht arrived, which had been specially prepared for the use of the ladies and a few invited guests. The river was, meanwhile,

ALIVE WITH CRAFTS of all descriptions while all the windows and roofs of the houses commanding a view of the river were crowded. The English champions boat was then launched followed by the ten oared barge from which James Taylor was to coach him in the race. The crowd gave Elliott no little cheering.

On the occasion of the Hanlon race last month, the weather was murky and oppressive, while the clouds of smoke came down the valley between the high level and red bridges.

Hanlon soon after took his position, and was also cheered.

At twenty minutes to 12 the referee's boat took its station in the middle of the river. Meanwhile the crowd was rapidly increasing, and the flotilla of steamers were uncomfortably crowded.

Hanlon in his boat WAS LOUDLY CHEERED.

According to the terms of agreement the men started by mutual consent. Elliott won the choice of position. Hanlon led all the way. Elliott made no response. He was evidently outworn at all points and much discouraged. On arriving at Scottswood suspension bridge a

WINNER BY TEN LENGTHS.

Hanlon took off his cap and was loudly cheered.

Five to two on Hanlon had been laid during the morning, but he came into much better favor just prior to the start. Elliott won the toss and took the northern shore.

After some delay, at 12.15, the men got off to

A CAPITAL START.

Hanlon dashed in a stroke at the rate of 42 to the minute, and at once drew to the front. Elliott struck at a rate of 40 to the minute, and exerted all his energetic strength, but slacked now and then, and his boat did not travel well. Hanlon got a lead of four length at Redheugh bridge. Time for the mile, 6 minutes and 11 1/2 seconds. The Canadian

LEADING BY FIVE LENGTHS.

Hanlon now slowed down and contented himself with keeping the advantage and eventually won very easily by eight lengths, in the good time of twenty-one minutes and one second.

There was an enormous crowd at Scottswood who cheered Hanlon to the echo.

SEVENTH DISPATCH.

Newcastle-on-Tyne, June 16.—The start was made from a point off the Mansion House. The weather was fine, though dull, and the water was beautifully smooth. There was an immense concourse of spectators and twenty steamers laden with passengers.

After three false starts were made, the men got away on equal terms. [Outsiders cries of

"THEY ARE OFF! THEY ARE OFF!"

At the third stroke Hanlon began to forge ahead of his competitor at a rapid rate, passing him almost as easily as a steam vessel does a sailing vessel. Hanlon rowed 39 strokes to the minute. Within a very short time Hanlon was two lengths ahead. On the first mile, when the men had reached the lead works, Hanlon led by four lengths, and was giving Elliott the wash of his boat. The shouting and yelling on the shore at this time, encouraging Elliott to greater exertion, was deafening.

Hanlon was evidently rowing a winning race. Elliott was

HUGGING THE SHORE.

At Earlwick Gangway Hanlon, finding the race safe, reduced his stroke to 32. Elliott, meanwhile, was running at 35, and beginning to show evidence of rowing wildly. His steering was very faulty.

Hanlon's steering was excellent. In passing Armstrong's scull there was no difference in the relative positions of the two men. The boat was about a quarter of a mile behind on the south of the island known as Kings Meadow. The water was as SMOOTH AS A MILL POND.

At the head of the Meadow Hanlon was rowing 23 strokes and Elliott 30, leading by five lengths. When off Benwell boat house, a little beyond Paradise Quay, Hanlon stopped rowing to

LOOK AROUND HIM

to ascertain the distance he had yet to row. This feat of his recalled to mind his falling out of his boat at about the same place when he defeated Howdon. About this time fell on the assembled thousands, for England's champion had been defeated almost without effort by the Canadian oarsman.

A DEATH-LIKE SILENCE

After winking pleasantly to those on shore Hanlon took to his oars and began rowing with all his might to make up lost time. The gap between him and Elliott was soon increased, and amid deafening plaudits Hanlon moved under the Scottswood bridge, winning the race by ten lengths, and gaining the well-deserved title of champion of England and America.

EIGHTH DISPATCH.

New York, June 16.—A dispatch from Newcastle-on-Tyne thus describes the race to-day:

At ten minutes past twelve the men got to their stations. Elliott was but Hanlon wore his dark blue sleeveless Jersey. Elliott, who looked confident and cheerful, called out to several of his friends on the umpire's boat, "I will take 3 to 1 that I lead all the way." No response was made to the champion's offer.

STRIPPED TO THE SKIN

A few bets at seven to four were made, however, on the umpire's boat. Hanlon came through the high level bridge having embarked on the south side. He lifted his cap to his friends on the cutter. Meanwhile the referee's boat floated up to the starting point and took its position.

Both men took a preliminary spurt of a few minutes and returned to the starting point.

PEDESTRIANISM.

London, June 16.—At half-past 9 this morning the score in the pedestrian match was as follows: Brown, 56 miles; Weston, 53 miles; Ennis, 45 miles; Harding, 42 miles. Harding was off the track, and believed to be used up.

London, 4 p. m.—At this hour the score in the pedestrian match stood: Brown, 89; Weston, 87; Ennis, 70; Harding, 65. Weston is going very strong and offers of 3 to 1 against him are the best that are to be had. Ennis is walking well. There are present about 500 spectators.

CRIME AND CASUALTY.

A Cincinnati Tar Roofer Dirks His Mistress.

HEAVY SUIT.

New York, June 16.—Nathan Goldsmith, of Newark, has begun suit in the New Jersey courts to recover $10,000 damages from the Pennsylvania Railroad. Plaintiff was one of the funeral party whose coaches were run over by a train and several persons killed and others injured. It is alleged the railroad company's servants were grossly careless.

DIRKED.

Cincinnati, June 16.—Edward Jenkins, a tar roofer, nearly murdered his mistress, Hattie Lee, last night, in a jealous rage. She received several terrible cuts in the face and neck with a dirk. Jenkins escaped.

WASHINGTON.

THE FOUR PERCENTS.

Washington, June 16.—Subscribers for four percent refund certificates, since Saturday's report, $37,000.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Washington, June 17.—Mr. Davis, of West Virginia, from the committee on appropriations, stated that, on consideration of the present state of business before the senate, the committee were unable to concur in the bill for the purpose of fixing to-morrow as the day of adjournment. They hoped to be able to report a resolution soon and fix an early day for adjournment.

The senate took up the bill introduced by McPherson to amend the act of 1878 in regard to enrolling and licensing vessels engaged in coasting trade and fishing.

The bill to amend the currency and licensing act went over on the expiration of the morning hour, and the supplemental judicial appropriation bill was taken up.

HOUSE.

Under the call of states the following bills were introduced and referred:

By Mr. Cox—To protect certificates of naturalization.

By Mr. Sanford—Prohibiting the boarding of money in the treasury, and prohibiting the increase of the interest bearing debt of the United States.

Mr. Springer, from the committee on elections, moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill to prohibit military interference at elections, was lost, yeas 108, nays 82. Not the necessary two-thirds vote. It was a strict party vote, all the democrats voting aye and the republicans no.

Labor Troubles.

Providence, June 16.—A few spinners and weavers in the Westerly Woolen Company's mills struck this morning for a restoration of wages and tee mills shut down.

SENGERFEST SCRIBBLING.

How the Fort Wayne Delegation Made Out at Cincinnati.

A Liberal Absorption of Beer and Music.

The twenty-first Sengerfest of the North American Sengerbund, held at Cincinnati in the week just closed, was participated in by some six hundred of our citizens, who found an abundance of pleasure in listening to the grand masses, the choruses and the solos of the fest, or in wandering about the or in quaffing the cool beer on the breezy hill-tops.

A comfortable daylight ride on the popular Muncie route lands one at the Plum street depot, whence an easy access to the hotels enables one to exchange the sooty complexion of the tourist for one more clear and comfortable.

It was not a little singular that the same opportunities were not accorded to our singing societies and their friends who had come down on an early Richmond train on Wednesday. Without breakfast, without the civilizing influence of a wash, and totally without order the entire party of junketers (men, women and children), were hurried into carriages, which wheeled into line and took part in the grand procession that was to inaugurate the Sengerfest.

Under such circumstances the ride, meant as a treat by a popular brewery agent, was hardly a source of pleasure and nobody could take pride in the appearance made by the Fort Wayne people, for in a procession intended only for the societies of the great North American Bund, in the Fort Wayne carriages alone appeared women and children, members and non-members, people un-uniformed, unkempt and unadorned.

This may have been in accordance with but it hardly promoted the comfort or temper of the friends of the Arion and Sengerbund societies.

THE "OHIO IDEA,"

Good quarters had been secured for the singers at the Queen City Hotel on Race street, about which on every morning and night of the week Fort Wayne people could be found in abundance. The singing headquarters for the two societies was the "Washington Platform," at the corner of Elm and Court streets, where music and beer simultaneously contributed to the enjoyment of the singers.

The friendliness extended to our singers at this place by the Mennercher Society of the Cincinnati Odd Fellows was very marked and was greatly appreciated by our two societies of sinners between whom there has never been the utmost harmony.

Of the performances at the Music Hall we do not care to speak, except to say that our people were liberal in applauding the various members and grew virtuously indignant when Bischoff, the tenor, appeared on the stage

VILLANOUSLY INTOXICATED.

This afternoon the last of the singers returned and all are free to express their satisfaction with the Sengerfest and its pleasant accessory features.

NOTES.

One of the last German singers to take his place in the chorus was Herr Carl Breckenridge, who had borrowed the grey hat of the guild and warbled his (ten pound) note with the fluency of a spring chicken.

E. J. Heiny went to Cincinnati to sing but found more pleasure in playing with the monkeys at the Zoological Garden.

Ed. Lang, the job printer, participated in the enjoyment of the Sengerfest.

The Overman Brothers were liberally patronized by their Fort Wayne friends. Henry says his fine hunting dog is the only canine that escaped the hopper the Wiener Wursthund.

The utmost sobriety was observed by the Fort Wayne excursionists, and of all the "obfuscated" individuals that passed the corner of Vine and Fifth streets Wednesday, not one wore the grey hat.

LATE CITY NEWS.

J. H. Steele, of Chicago, is in the city.

J. D. Cook will arrive Friday or Saturday.

Fred. Graffe, the popular Wabash jeweler, was in the city yesterday.

The Anthony Wayne steamer was shipped to Seneca Falls on Saturday.

The Qui Vive Club will meet with Miss Stockbridge next Wednesday evening.

Elnor Cox, grand master of Indiana, will address the Odd Fellows at Rome City on the 20th.

Tony Pastor and troupe made the boss parade and honored the SENTINEL office with a fine serenade.

Among the names spoken of for conmissioner of the first ward are Ed. Woodward, Wm. McKean and Julius Eme.

Sid Lombard has received no answer as yet, respecting the scheme to have the Chicago play an exhibition game in this city.

Jerry Hillegass, John Coleman, Perry Seavy and others, are going to attend the commencement of Ann Arbor University next week.

This morning at 10 o'clock Dr. H. S. Myers removed a large fatty tumor from the arm of Mrs. Alter, corner of Wilt and VanBuren streets.

Chas. McQuiston, of this city, left last evening for West Point, to enter the Military academy. He is the appointee for the cadetship from the twelfth district.

Edward Josse has been arrested on a charge of bastardy preferred by Frederica Sommers.

Geo. Wilbur has been appointed administrator of the estate of Peter Hartzell deceased.

The picnic yesterday at Mad Anthony Park was well attended. One small fight added variety to the occasion.

The suit of Greenbaum vs. Wolf was dismissed by the defendant paying Greenbaum $1,000 and the costs of the prosecution.

Dr. Lefe Reed, one of the Roanoke grave robbers, who broke jail at Huntington last January, has been arrested at Lafayette, and is now in jail at that place.

This afternoon, at 3 o'clock, Harry Carpenter, aged 15, son of Wash. Carpenter, burned his feet so badly on some cinders at the Pittsburgh round house, that it is feared he will be a cripple for life.

In Ryan's court this morning Chas. Freese obtained judgment against Jno. Stutzenberger $111. Constable Wilkinson, by a little strategy, gained entrance into Stutzenberger's room and levied on a quantity of goods valued at about $500.

The late arrivals from Cincinnati are Geo. Stoddard, Councilman Mohr and wife, Councilman Hettler and wife, W. P. Cooper, mother and sister, and several others.

A WORD IN EARNEST

—BY—

Dr. Von MOSCHZISKER,</

40 Years Before the Public THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS

FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are constive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLANE, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

TUTT'S PILLS!

A NOTED DIVINE SAYS THEY ARE WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD READ WHAT HE SAYS:

DR. TUTT:—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith). I am now a well man, have good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, no piles, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

Rev. R. L. SIMPSON, Louisville, Ky.

A TORPID LIVER

Is the fruitful source of many diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Constipation, Piles, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Jaundice, Piles, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, Colic, etc.

Tutt's Pills exert a powerful influence on the Liver and will with certainty remove this important organ from disease, and restore its normal functions.

The rapidity with which persons take on flesh, while under the influence of these pills, is well indicated by their ability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, Dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health and strength to the system.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. When the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, the pills should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Several hundred extra copies of Saturday's SENTINEL were sold, and the supply was not equal to the demand.

George Kanning Arrested for the Offense.

George Kanning, 20 years old, son of Wm. Kanning, was arrested Saturday evening by officer Doyle on a charge of assault and battery with intent to COMMIT A RAPE.

upon the person of Josephine Freeman upon the eleven year old daughter of the late Sam. P. Freeman, once city clerk.

The little girl lives with her mother at No. 104 Barr street. She stated that just after dark she went to Mr. Kanning's house, No. 37 East Wayne street, and while drawing a pail of water in the rear of the house, young Kanning called to her and said to come into the house as he wanted to tell her something. She told him she couldn't come, as she had to take the water home, when he stole up behind her, threw his arms about her, and by main force carried her into the house. She screamed as loudly as possible, and Kanning attempted to choke her. When he got her into the house, which was empty, he tried to choke her and tie her down. He locked the door and choked her until she breath had almost left her. He endeavored to take liberties with the girl's person, but her discouraged him, and, telling her she "made too d-n much noise," he released her with an injunction not to expose him or he would kill her.

She returned home almost dead with fright and told her story. The case was at once reported to police headquarters, and Chief Smith went in search of young Kanning. He was not to be found, and Lieut. Wilkinson and Officers Doyle, O'Connell and Roth were left to watch for his return. Thinking the policemen had left, he finally crawled out of a wagon in the alley, and was gobbled by Doyle. His father became his surety for $500 and he was released.

It is said that his parents last evening attempted to

by the payment of money, but it was refused. This morning the case before the mayor was dismissed and Kanning was taken before Justice Pratt. A change of venue was taken and the case sent to Justice Beeks, who will hear it at 10 to-morrow morning. Kanning gave $500 bonds, with his uncle, Fred Kanning, as surety.

WHAT KANNING SAYS.

A SENTINEL reporter interviewed Kanning to-day at noon, and he denied the statement as appearing above in toto.

He stated that she had been in the habit of coming to the house to get water and that the pump was too high for her, and she always made a great deal of noise and racket in getting water, and his father had told him that the next time she came there he should tell her not to come any more. When he heard her at the pump, he went out and told her to leave. She said no attention, but went on pumping. He then went and made her stop, took hold of her hand and set it down. He then took her by the arm and jerked her around and told her to leave. He then left her and went into the house. She was not in the house at all.

THE RAILROADS.

Freight rates eastward have advanced.

The Wabash road seems to be a demoralizer of Sunday schools as well as rates. In one of the Detroit Sunday schools is a boy who has not failed in his penny contribution for more than a year, and when he was found empty handed last Sabbath the teacher observed: "Why, Johnny, did you forget your penny to-day?" "No, ma'am," he humbly replied, "but father says the Wabash road will do this town more good than any fourteen Sunday schools, and I'm going to chuck my coppers into that enterprise for the next few weeks." Won't the heathen miss your pennies?" he inquired. "I suppose they will, but we've all got to come right down or this town is busted."

Matter of Interest to Travelers.

Tourists, emigrants and mariners find that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicinal safeguard against unwholesome influences, upon which they can implicitly rely, since it prevents the effects of an unhealthy climate, a vitiated atmosphere, unaccustomed or enervating diet, bad water, or other conditions unfavorable to health, would otherwise produce. On long voyages or journeys by land in latitudes adjacent to the equator, it is especially useful as a preventive of the febrile complaints and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, which are apt to attack natives of the temperate zones sojourning or traveling in such regions, and is an excellent protection against the influence of extreme cold, sudden changes of temperature, and the most successful remedy for intermittent fever, and other diseases of a malarial type, but eradicates them, a fact which has been noted by the year past in North and South America, Mexico, the West Indies, Australia and other countries.

Haunted Me.

Debt, poverty and suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost.—A Workingman, 6,16-31

ROOT AND COMPANY.

Silks.
The superiority of our Silk Department over that of any other house in the city is a long-established fact. We have never before, however, been able to offer the same inducements in that department to purchasers that we now can.

Dress Silks.
In all the new and desirable shades and designs.

Trimmings.
Silks and Satins to match.

We have now in stock an unusually fine line of American Silks.

In plain and brocaded patterns, so justly celebrated for their beauty of coloring and design, and great durability.

Black Silks.
Besides an elegant assortment of black dress silks, we have recently received several pieces of Mantilla Silks.

27 inches wide, and just the thing in every way for the purpose.

We have also made our Silk Department a specialty, and are satisfied with the lowest possible prices consistent with the best class of goods.

Grenadines.
In black and colors and in all the new and tasteful designs, at exceedingly low prices.

Black Cashmeres.
In these goods we keep only the makes of established reputation for purity of dye and excellence of make and finish. We are offering these goods at prices that must command the attention of the cleverest buyers.

Mourning Goods.
We are now able to display everything desirable in this line, and at our well known low prices.

Suit Department.
We have many attractions in this department, and some special bargains well worth looking at. This department is especially interesting at this time.

Fringes.
We have an elegant line of silk and wool fringes, all colors, ranging in price from 40c to $4. The low prices that we have made on these goods have given them an extraordinary sale this season.

Notions, Etc.
We have mentioned a few specialties under this head.

Neckties and Dress Ornaments.
In large variety. Some of the most exquisite neckties are offered—each one a work of art. New line of Breton and Trench Laces. Double Faced Ribbons in all the novel and desirable shades and combinations.

A Lady and Her Two Children Stricken Down.

Last evening about 6 o'clock Mrs. Scheinlein, wife of a tailor doing business on Main street, near Harrison street, in Nebraska, on West Main street, during the storm. She had gone into the summer kitchen to close up the stove in which a bright fire was burning. When she was standing close to the chimney, a VIVID FLASH OF LIGHTNING was seen, and in a second Mrs. S. was lying rigid and unconscious upon the floor. At the same time her little son, six years old, was thrown from the lounge, to the floor with great violence. The little daughter, four years old, was also thrown against the window.

The children were unconscious for a short time and upon reviving were terrified to find their mother lying upon the floor.

APPARENTLY DEAD.
They hastened to the house of a neighbor, Mrs. Coffman, who went into Scheinlein's house and found Mrs. S. alive but unconscious. They placed her on a bed and summoned her husband and a physician.

Mrs. Scheinlein, to-day, was still in bed and was said to be in a very critical condition.

DIVERS DRUNKS.
Interesting Session of the Police Court.

The Mayor Interviewed Several Bad Characters.

Nellie Williams was wanted at the police court this morning. Marshal Diehl announced her name three times, but she didn't respond. Nellie had been on a high bender Saturday night, when Officer Folsberg took her under his protecting wing. Nellie's failure to show up makes $6 for the House of the Friendless.

Patrick Grady, you are charged in the affidavit of Officer Myers with being found on the streets unlawfully drunk. What do you say—guilty or not guilty?

"Awfully drunk, sur; faith an' I was sur; I had a little drink, sur; but I'm down sorry for it, sur."

Officer Myers said Pat hadn't done anything but fall down, and so he took him to the refinery.

Pat said: "Well, judge, I had a little drink, sur; but, yer honor, the judge, if you will let me off, sur, I'll never come here again, sur. I was a workin', sur, at the Masonic Temple, sur, an' the boss he treated sur, an' afore I knew it I was drunk, sur. I was goin' to commence a job of ditchin' in this mornin', sur, an' I got into the calaboose Saturday night."

Mayor: "Yes, you were going to commence ditching this morning, and instead of waiting you began Saturday and worked into the ditch yourself, is that it?"

"Yes, sur; I'm used to workin' in rock, an' was goin' to begin this mornin'."

Clerk: "What kind of rock, rock and Rye?"

"Oh, well; rock, you know."

Mayor: "Well, clear out this time."

"I'm much obliged to you and the constables; I was over."

Mayor: "Well, that you do; you'd better skip or you'll talk yourself over the canal in a minute."

Roscoe Conklin Dodd was next brought up standing before the bar. Roscoe, it appears, was so drunk that he didn't know his own name. He had not been drunk for nine months, and wasn't tramping either. He was a travelling wholesale jewelry establishment, and had a number of genuine solid rings for sale which he would now offer at greatly reduced rates. Owing to his rare business capacity, the mayor said $2.00 would be all the license required. The senator will take it out in board.

Silas Wentz, was last Saturday night the drunkest man that ever laid on the broad of his back, but his sorrow couldn't be expressed by our limited language.

"Do you often get that way?" said the mayor.

"No only once in awhile, but I'm goin' to quit right away, I believe it is a bad business."

"Well I think you'd better. The next time you come up here, you'll get thirty days over the river."

Silas lives in Bluffton, and for Bluffton he will sail at once.

It would be a good idea, and a humane one as well, if a committee of about two hundred and forty persons would go down to Peru and take charge of the editor of the Peru Sentinel. He inflicts the following: "Fort Wayne elected a board of water works anticipatory of having water works. It is very likely that the election won't hold water, worth a hydrant in the next sewer-n year." Now the probability is that he means something by the above paragraph, but what it is cannot be ascertained. That shall be the duty of the committee, viz, to find out what is meant or whether the editor is insane; in either case to soak that editor's head in the limpid waters of the Wabash until his longings spirit takes its homeward flight to the land where early frosts are unknown.

JOHNSTON & CO.,

THE DEATH ROLL.

Imposing Obsequies of Capt. Putnam Yesterday.

The Late Jesse Colles—Mr. Wood's Interment.

Sudden Demise of V. Jacobson of Heart Disease.

The city council met on Saturday evening, at city hall, his honor, the mayor, presiding, and a full board present except Messrs. Mohr and Rettler.

The mayor stated the object of the meeting, and it was resolved to attend the funeral of the late Councilman Putnam in a body, together with the city officers and representatives of all departments of the city government; also to have the council chamber and Capt. Putnam's desk draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. Mohler, McCullough and Chittenden, was appointed to draft resolutions of respect, to be reported to the council at its next meeting.

THE FUNERAL.
Yesterday afternoon, about half-past 2, the members of the various departments of the city government formed in line and proceeded to the late residence of the deceased, No. 117 East Wayne street. The remains were carried in a handsome burial casket, upon which was a silver plate inscribed with the name and date of birth and death of the departed. A procession was formed and proceeded to the First Presbyterian church in the following order:

Marshal Diehl and deputies.
Chief of Police and Police Force.
Mayor Zollinger and city officers.
Water Works board.
City Commissioners.
City Council.
Fall boards.
Bereaves.
Carriages.

The church was crowded during the services, which were deeply impressive. The Rev. D. W. Mollath paid a feeling tribute to the deceased as a man of honesty and integrity, who was ever faithful to every trust confided in him and who enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him. The reverend gentleman spoke of the rich religious experience of the deceased, and of his services to the church with which he had been identified since 1858. As a member of the board of trustees and as collector of the church, Capt. Putnam had been found faithful. Reference was also made to his long and honest career in connection with the city, and to the patience and resignation with which he had for many years, borne the most excruciating sufferings.

The clergyman then took as his text 1 Corinthians, xv. 35: "Some come, man will say, How are the dead raised up, and with what body do they come?"

From this text an able discourse was preached upon the immortality of the soul and the resurrection of the dead.

The exercises at the church were concluded with a prayer. The singing was furnished by a quartette choir, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dang, J. A. Shoaff and Miss Clara Goodwin.

The procession was then reformed and the body removed to Lindenwood Cemetery, where, after a brief prayer, it was consigned to the tomb. The church bell tolled while the procession moved.

Altogether it was a most solemn and impressive tribute to the memory of a worthy citizen and an upright officer.

JESSE COLES.

The SENTINEL of Saturday briefly referred to the death of Jesse Coles, which occurred Friday night at his home in Washington township. The deceased was one of the best known men in the county, having resided here since 1836. His age was nearly seventy-eight. When he first removed here he worked upon the farm of his brother, S. Coles, and by industry and economy accumulated enough money to purchase the valuable farm in Washington township where he lived and died. He was a most upright, large-hearted and charitable man and immensely popular with all who knew him. An ardent and active democrat he never held or would accept any official position save that of justice of the peace. He had several children his wife having died about a quarter of a century ago.

The funeral took place this afternoon, and was well attended. The body was interred in Lindenwood, the pall bearers being Jacob Bowser, O. G. Hill, Frank Furst, John Recket and James M. Kane.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.
Victor Jacobson, an old and well known citizen of Fort Wayne, was found dead in bed this morning, at his residence, No. 136 West Wayne street. The cause of his death is supposed to be apoplexy. Mr. Jacobson has been long and favorably known as a clothing dealer in this city. He failed in business about two months ago, since which time he has been very much depressed in mind. The knowledge of this fact led to a rumor that Mr. Jacobson committed suicide. After a careful examination, however, of the facts in the case, the SENTINEL is prepared to say that the rumor is without foundation, and that his death was probably caused by apoplexy or heart disease. Mr. Jacobson was about sixty years of age, and leaves a large family.

W. S. WOOD.
The remains of the late W. S. Wood were removed to Chicago at noon today, accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Pannic M. Tuttle, and her husband, the Rev. Tuttle. The remains will be interred in Graceland Cemetery at Chicago.

Hop, Wm. P. Fishback, has formally resigned the clerkship of the United States court, in order to retain the master in chancery. He is succeeded by Hon. Noble C. Butler, of New Albany, his former law partner, and at present register in bankruptcy.

THE SCHOOL ROW.
Important Letter From the School Board.

The Position Taken Last March.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:
At the end of March last, the senior class of the central grammar school addressed a petition to the School Board asking certain changes from the usual graduating exercises.

This petition received the calm, dispassionate and thorough consideration of the Board, who made the following reply through their president:

"Publication is requested that the public may see not only that the wishes of the class were fairly considered and weighed, but also that the young ladies and gentlemen were fully and in the kindest manner, and in ample time advised and warned as to their duty in all things pertaining to their graduation. Very truly yours,
J. S. IRWIN, Superintendent.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 11, 1890.

To Dr. Jno. S. Irwin, Sup't, etc.:
DEAR SIR:—The request of the senior graduating class of the central grammar school, of 1879, that the graduating exercises be held in some other than the central grammar school building, was presented by you to the board, and after due consideration it was unanimously resolved, that the request ought not to be granted.

The hall is public school property, and it was built and arranged for public school exercises; it has a larger seating capacity than any hall in the city. It is fully seated, thoroughly lighted and ventilated. The exercises therein take nothing from their school fund and nothing from the means of the graduates. If any other place be used, some one must pay the expenses, unnecessary, and wrong if imposed upon the pupils or parents.

The board cannot recognize the right of propriety of a graduating class seeking to interfere with, or to dictate, in any manner, the graduating exercises. They must be as fully under the control of the trustees as any other business of the schools.

We are anxious to please the graduating class, in all proper ways, as its members can be to please their parents and friends, and themselves, and we are willing to accord them, every reasonable facility for pleasant and profitable closing exercises. But we cannot be made to believe that the stated objections to the use of our own building are such as to cause us to change the place and outward adornments are nothing, but what the mind shall present is alone the gratifying measure of ability, study and success. On such occasions what is said will be better remembered than what is seen.

The board, and the superintendent, and principal and teachers will co-operate with the class in making the exercises a credit to the earnest efforts of all, and to each member we give the assurance of our friendship, and the hope that their lengthened lives may be strengthened by every virtue and crowned with all happiness and success.

Please communicate the decision of the board to the members of the class, yours, etc. A. P. EGDERTON, President Board of Trustees.

THE RAILROADS.
The Pittsburgh pay car will arrive to-morrow.

No. 70 on the Pittsburgh was two hours late yesterday.

The Wabash hauled about 600 people to Lafayette on their excursion trains yesterday.

Everything indicates that the Wabash will have an independent line into Chicago before the end of the year. It is understood that it is quietly buying up property on the West Side for depot facilities. It is stated that it has purchased a large tract of land on West Fourteenth street from Potter Palmer, and another south of this from Mr. Albert Crane.

THE NARROW GAUGE RAILROAD.
The Fort Wayne and Terre Haute Narrow Gauge Railroad Co., organized this morning with sixteen incorporators, stock subscribers for $62,250 of the capital stock of $75,000. A board of thirteen directors was elected, viz:

Edwin Evans, Mr. Hamilton, A. C. Traubman, Henry Monning, F. M. Mohler, R. T. McDonald, R. C. Bell, F. B. Hedekin, Geo. W. Pixley, F. H. Wolke, W. J. Holman, J. Thomas Hanna and Wm. H. Jones.

President—Edwin Evans.
Vice president—Thos. B. Hedekin.
Treasurer—F. H. Wolke.
Secretary—Wm. H. Jones.

The president, vice president, treasurer and secretary, together with Messrs. W. J. Holman, Henry Monning and R. C. Bell were appointed a committee to draft and report by laws.

The work of getting aid etc., along the line of the road will be pushed forward at once.

Sheriff Munson left for Michigan City to-day with Dedier Duplain and Charles Williams, who get two and one years respectively, for murderous assault and larceny. Duplain, the Frenchman was greatly affected.

Tony Pastor and his great double combination will give an entertainment at the Academy to-night. This is undoubtedly the greatest company of the kind in the country, and should have an immense audience to-night.

The Church of the Evangelical Association, on the corner of Clinton and Holman streets, was feloniously entered last Saturday night and burglarized of some articles of nominal value, consisting of a table cloth, books etc.
